

InStyle.

BLACKJACK, PUTTY,
BLOODLINE, DARK RUBY
& GOLD CHROME COLOUR

As seen in InStyle
August 2011

TWO-TONED NAILS

Want a modern twist on the French manicure? Use two contrasting nonwhite colors. At Behnaz Sarafpour, Jan Arnold's Creative Nail Design team crafted this edgy accent, combining a gray putty shade with black. "File nails in an almond shape to elongate fingers and make them look more feminine," says Arnold.

CND Colour & Effects polish in Blackjack and Putty, $9 each, cnd.com for stores.

CND Colour nail polishes in Bloodline, Dark Ruby, and Gold Chrome.

THE BRAID CRAZE

It's official: braids can't get enough of mixed and matched hair. When we spotted the side braid back as Alexander Wang's spring 2011 show, we knew the trend would become a season. This season, double braids, vertical updos, and as Karlie and Bing & Bono. "The look is playful and so easy to do with long hair," he says.

TWO-TONED NAILS

Behnaz Sarafpour, Jan Arnold's Creative Nail Design team crafted this edgy accent, combining a gray putty shade with black. "File nails in an almond shape to elongate fingers and make them look more feminine," says Arnold.

STRONG BROWS

Jan Arnold's Creative Nail Design team crafted this edgy accent, combining a gray putty shade with black. "File nails in an almond shape to elongate fingers and make them look more feminine," says Arnold.

GROW YOUR NAILS LONG

Jan Arnold's Creative Nail Design team crafted this edgy accent, combining a gray putty shade with black. "File nails in an almond shape to elongate fingers and make them look more feminine," says Arnold.

